Millikin - Niederer Vows Exchanged On Friday

Before 150 guests Friday evening, September 5th at 7:30 at Michelson Memorial Church, Miss Elizabeth Frances Niederer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil John Niederer, became the bride of Donald Leroy Millikin in a double ring ceremony.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Millikin.

The Reverend Canon Warner L. Foreyth of East Tawas, Mich., officiated at the Episcopal service. Mr. Thomas Stancil sang, "Oh, Perfect Love," accompanied by Mrs. Clarence G. Clippert, organist, who also played the traditional wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride's gown was styled with a Chantilly lace bodice and scalloped peplum, featuring a high round neckline and fitted wrist point sleeves. The bodice was fastened down the back with tiny matching lace covered buttons. The skirt was fashioned of floor length satin with a full over skirt of illusion lace that ended in a cathedral train. She also wore a tiny gold cross necklace, a gift of the groom. Seed pearls outlined the Juliet cap which held her fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a white leather Episcopal prayer book from which hung streamers entwined with stephanotis.

Miss Shirley Diane Souder, maid of honor, wore a powder blue tulle floor length gown with a heart shaped neckline and full skirt with bustle effect. Her white silk mits were elbow length and she wore a coronet of white illusion in her hair. She carried a Colonial bouquet of baby pink and white mums tied with white satin streamers.

Miss Ann Marie Stancil, cousin of the bride, acted as flower girl and was attired in a gown fashioned with a jewel neckline of pink net over taffeta, scattered with blue forget-me-nots. A half halo of pink net and sweetheart roses with matching nylon mits completed her costume. She carried a Colonial bouquet and a white basket from which she strewed rose petals.

Little four-year-old George Lee Stancil, cousin of the bride, ring bearer, carried the rings in a white Calla-lily.

Duane LeRoy Worden was best man for his cousin.

Emil Clark Niederer, brother of the bride, Larry Pond and Robert Knutla of Rose City seated the guests.

The male members of the wedding party wore traditional mid-night blue suits, black bow ties and white-boutonnieres.

Mrs. Niederer, mother of the bride, chose a navy Chantilly lace, floor length gown for the wedding. Her accessories were blue. Mrs. Millikin, mother of the groom, wore a navy ballerina length dress and matching accessories. Each wore a corsage of white roses and stephanotis.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony.

The refreshment table was centered with a large floral arrangement guarded by white tapers. Mrs. Alfred Sorenson, Mrs. J. F. Cook, Mrs. Warren B. Cooksey and Mrs. Ernest Hoelsi presided.

The wedding cake was five tiered topped with a miniature bride and groom from the golden wedding cake of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Clark. It was graced on either side with white tapers in crystal candelabra. The first piece of cake was cut by the bride and groom after which Mrs. Thomas Robertson served.

Background music for the reception was presented by Mrs. Joseph Yorty, concert violinist of Higgins Lake and Mrs. Woodrow Loughray, pianist, of Roscommon.

At least 27 teams and probably as many as 30 will start the 1952 Michigan Canoe Championships from Grayling this Friday night at midnight. Up to Tuesday morning of this week, 27 teams had entered, all Michigan teams with the exception of one team from Minneapolis, Minn. It was expected by race officials that probably five or more teams would enter the marathon before race time. Radio station WJR will broadcast the race starting at 11:15 p. m. Friday night, when they will give a short pre-race program probably interviewing some of the contestants and race officials. From then on, regular programs will be broken into during the night and on Saturday to give race information as the leaders are clocked under bridges and over the dams.

Starting festivities here in Grayling will be a ladies canoe race sponsored by the Grayling Legion Auxiliary. This race will start at Ray's Canoe livery to Stephens' Bridge and will get underway at 3:30 p. m. Prizes will be awarded for the first three teams finishing and a dinner will be served at the AuSable River Inn for all contestants finishing the race. These trophies are offered by the Eastern Michigan Tourist Association.

The committee pointed out that they receive a waiver from each team as the entry blanks are filled out but it was up to any team's sponsor to get their own waiver. The Homelife Corp. with a large truck mounted with flood and searchlights will light up the starting area, it was said. The finish line in Oscoda this year will be moved to the east bank of the river instead of the west as was previously done. It was also announced that the Oscoda Army Air Base will have an ambulance on the scene for use if it is needed. The Judges Committee will be formed of General Chairman Ben Aker of Mio, Bert Stuckney of Oscoda, finish chairman, Secretary Les Hunter of Grayling and the starting chairman and judge.

At Grayling, Glennie, Mio and Oscoda, huge blackboards will be set up and progress reports posted. According to Floyd Davis, the amateur radio coverage will be supplied by members of the Traverse City Radio Club and hams from all parts of Michigan.

While others dreamed it
...Ford built it!

Yes, all car makers have their dream cars. But they can't build them at prices you'd pay. Ford, however, has proved the exception. Its dream car is now off the blueprints and on the road—a car that compares with the best ...and it is priced with the lowest.

Go Broke On $10,000 . . .

Time was when $10,000 a year was a lot of money. Only the relative few earned or had a reasonable hope of earning as much. Even nowadays, with record taxes and a four-bit dollar, it is far more than most families ever see, the average income being in the neighborhood of $3,000.

Yet there is a $10,000-a-year class of people in this country who simply can't make both ends meet, economize as they will. That, at least, is the theme of a fascinating article in the July issue of Harper's magazine, called "Going Broke on $10,000 a Year" which is signed with the pseudonym Jay Taylor. This class consists of junior business executives who must put up a front, appear to live very well, have good addresses, entertain as a part of their jobs, and donate generously to charities and other worthy causes. Mr. Taylor writes early in his article: 'I'm a symbol—and a simpleton. I'm a symbol of the group from which business leaders used to be drawn, a group now being liquidated . . .'

Mr. Taylor goes into meticulous detail as to his finances, and it's quite a story. Last year, he wrote, he earned $10,400 and spent $10,456. And here, in capsule form, is what happened to his money. To get the full flavor of the account, of course, the whole article should be read. First of all he actually got not $10,400 but $8,978 taxes having accounted for the difference. His first outgo was for rent—$1,656. This he says, is about as little as he could pay without moving to so cheap a neighborhood that he would lose cast with his associates and endanger future promotions.

Several hundred dollars went out for unavoidable household expenses such as utilities, and his wife got $2,049 or some $40 a week, to buy the food and other supplies needed by a family of four. Furniture swallowed $274, and insurance $471. Mr. Taylor has no car and says he can't possibly afford one, but commutation tickets cost him $180 and are scheduled to go up in price.

Doctors and dentists accounted for $264, and the children's expenses, such as their clothes and school books and a summer camp, dug in to the tune of $241. He and his wife spent only $173 on clothing for themselves. Gifts and holiday expenses totaled around $500 all told, and there was a miscellaneous item of $364, which included such odds and ends as church contributions, wood, bushes and bulbs for the garden.

So it goes, in Mr. Taylor's summation—everything is accounted for down to the penny, save $133 for which he has no records. None of the items of expenditure seem at all high for a man in his position—many of them seem almost amazingly low.

Mr. Taylor's conclusion is typical of the tone of his article: 'So I speak as one small symbol of a class. I look at the broken down occasional chair which should have been replaced a year ago. I postpone my trip to the dentist for another six months in hopes that the pediatrician's bill can be paid in the interval. And I realize that I belong to a new class of forgotten men in whom no labor leaders, politicians, farmers, corporation presidents, or commencement speakers take any vested interest—the $10,000-a-year men, Vanquished Americans.'

Come On In and Order One...Today!

There are many people in this community who want a Cadillac ever so badly—and who are almost persuaded to order one——but who, for one reason or another, are just holding back and waiting.

To all these people we wish to say: "Come on in and order your Cadillac today!"

Every day you wait is simply postponing, still further, the wonderful time when you can enjoy the many delightful things a Cadillac will bring you.

There is, for instance, the deep feeling of pride which comes from owning a car which is universally acknowledged to be the Standard of the World . . .

. . . the great satisfaction that comes from driving a car so quiet you can "whisper and be heard"; so easy to handle that driving is no conscious effort at all; so comfortable and restful that a day at its wheel is the essence of relaxation . . .

. . . the comforting confidence that comes from knowing your car is so soundly-engineered and so beautifully-built that you can keep it and enjoy it over almost any period you may care to designate . . .

. . . and, finally, the happy knowledge that you probably paid less for your Cadillac than hundreds of thousands of people who are driving other makes of cars—for there are numerous models produced by other manufacturers which actually cost more than the lowest-priced Cadillac!

Isn't all this too much to miss for even one needless day? Owners of Cadillacs will tell you it is—out of their own experience. Time and again, people who have just moved up to Cadillac have said to us—"Why did I wait so long to enjoy all this?"

That's why we urge you to come in today and start down the happy road to Cadillac ownership. You have already missed too much—too long!

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Narrow Town— Broad Outlook

The wife's cousin Ben, and Belle his bride are back from honeymooning in the Rockies. Took them to dinner last night at the Garden Tavern. Ben told about the trip:

"Went through a town in Idaho that was only 100 feet wide. No kidding! Built into a long, narrow canyon. And it shares those 100 feet with a railroad track that runs right through the hotel!"

"To get gas there we had to park right on the tracks. Suddenly Belle screams—'there's a train coming!' But the gas fellow just laughs and says we were there first. Blamed if the engineer didn't stop the train and wait, too!"

From where I sit, it's a good illustration of how people can learn to "think of the other fellow" so that the community benefits. Railroaders and townspeople, Democrats and Republicans, malted milk fanatics and those who prefer a temperate glass of beer—we all have to share the same space. Let's maintain our neighbor's "right of way."
